I

MUNDANE ASTROLOGY PANEL PER MONTH

Once a month, after our Mundane astrology lecture, we will have a free one-hour mundane astrology discussion, to discuss current geopolitical, economic and important World events and apply what we learnt from mundane astrology.

We will also invite guest speakers to bring us different aspects.

SESSIONS

26th Jun 2021 BST 5pm-6:30pm
A crash course in Mundane techniques
Sue Tompkins

In this fast-paced session, Sue will discuss and illustrate the various techniques the mundane astrologer uses and explain why some techniques are more important than others. She will also look at the current Saturn-Uranus square and discuss current and future events.

10th July 2021 BST 5pm-6:30pm
Reading the past to navigate the present:
historical cycles as teachers
Darby Costello

Pluto has been in Capricorn with Neptune in Pisces six times in the last three thousand years. We shall look at each of these periods to help us understand this current cycle, which began in 2008-10 and will end in 2024-5. And then we shall look at the Saturn Uranus Neptune conjunction of the late 1980s, early 90s: its history, and its demands on the generation born during that time. Observing earlier historical cycles gives us a perspective on our present time and helps us to navigate our communal and private lives with attention and compassion.

17th July 2021 BST 5pm-6:30pm
Holding Tight and Breaking Free:
Saturn Squares Uranus
Lynn Bell

When Saturn and Uranus come into aspect the old and the new are at odds. Something has to give, and something has to stay. We are asked to take risks, and to hold tight, often at the same time. These two planets will form an exact waning square on February 17 2021, and again on June 14, and December 24th. It becomes very hard to maintain the status quo when Saturn and Uranus clash, and indeed their friction will help give rise to a new era. You may be in the middle of a dilemma and you are not alone. After all that has happened most of us are longing for the change symbolized by Saturn and Jupiter in Aquarius, and yet Uranus in Taurus calls us to claim what we hold dear. In this webinar we will look at how these planets affect each of us, through the houses that are activated in the natal chart, what are the choices we are being asked to make?

31st July 2021 BST 5pm-6:30pm
How Did We Get Here From There? - The Jupiter Saturn Great Mutation Cycle.
Mandi Lockley

Jupiter and Saturn are contradictory energies, but the push and pull of their cycle is a reliable witness to how ideas and potentials become reality. Asking how did we get here from there, we'll glance into the past for an overview of the Jupiter Saturn cycle through its elemental epochs, focusing particularly on how history has been shaped by developments in how we communicate and spread information. We'll also consider how the world has changed over the last 200+ years during the Great Mutation Cycle in the Earth signs, and the speed of change over the last 40 years as the Great Conjunctions started transitioning into the Air signs.

7th Aug 2021 BST 5pm-6:30pm
Mars-Saturn and Jupiter-Saturn cycles
Dr. J Lee Leham

The Mars-Saturn and Jupiter-Saturn cycles were used as shorter length mundane cycles in the same style as the Jupiter-Saturn conjunctions. The symmetry of the Jupiter-Saturn synodic cycle is that involves the Greater Benefic and the Greater Malefic. The Mars-Saturn cycle involves the two malefics. The Mars-Jupiter cycle mixes malefic and benefic: but neither can cancel each other. Learn about the history and application of these cycles.

14th Aug BST 5pm-6:30pm
Outer planet cycle –
The Everchanging Landscape
Wendy Stacey

This talk will look at the larger mundane cycles of our solar system and how the structure and themes of our societies evolves and shifts against the backdrop of these enormous cycles.

28th Aug BST 5pm-6:30pm
Outer planet cycle –
The Social Climate
Wendy Stacey

This talk will follow from “The Everchanging Landscape” on 14 Aug and look at how the outer planetary cycles impact our economy, politics and society.

SESSIONS

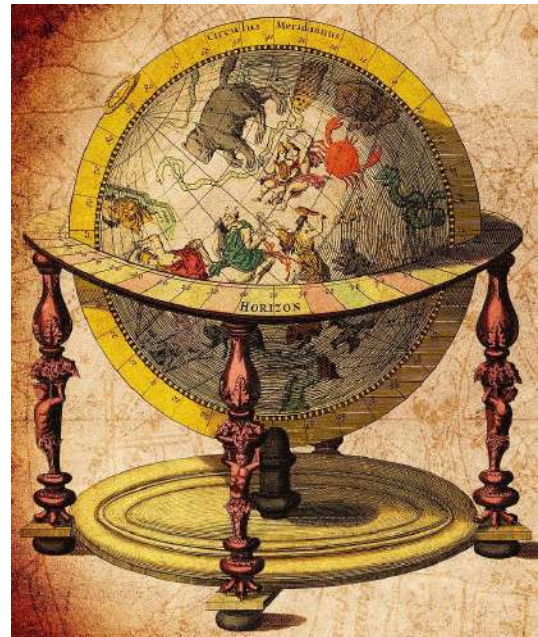

18th Sep 2021 BST 5pm-6:30pm
House in Mundane Astrology
Dr. Stormie Grace

Mundane astrology studies the impact of the planets on not just the individual, but also communities, countries, and the World. Because it is not a solo individual practice it is critical to understand how to interpret the symbols and the role they play in Mundane Astrology. A key piece of this understanding are the houses. Understanding the information each holds to explain the different departments of societal activity will illuminate their interpretation and guide your analysis of a Mundane Practice. So, come with me and let's turn the lights on in the MUNDANE Houses!

25th Sep 2021 BST 5pm-6:30pm
Declination in Mundane astrology
Christeen Skinner

In this talk we begin with the lunar declination cycle and how this can be used for terrestrial weather forecasting. Then we move on to the longer term declination cycles focusing primarily on the Mars cycle and the potential influence on global conflict. We will also consider the parallels of Neptune and Pluto and their influence on economic cycles.

2nd October 2021 BST 5pm-6:30pm
Aries Ingress chart in Mundane astrology
Sharon Knight

Sharon will be looking at the Traditional method of assessing the Aries Ingress in regard to making Mundane predictions. This will include the use of the szerygy prior to the Aries Ingress, the Ingress of the Sun into each sign during each quarter throughout the year. The Ingress of Mercury and what that can herald, along with the Ingress of Mars and Venus into each sign through the year.

If time permits, we will also consider the Eclipses and how and when the effects may manifest as there are "rules" around time periods for manifestation.

We will focus our Mundane charts on UK, Russia, Germany and US.

This webinar will be suitable for beginners, improvers and even the experienced.

16th Oct 2021 BST 5pm-6:30pm
Profections/Solar Returns in Mundane Astrology
R Hakan Kırkoğlu

Essentially, profections and solar revolutions are predictive techniques in natal astrology, However, they would also provide us with a new perspective when they are applied to national charts in the mundane work. As a mundane astrologer, I have been using return charts and profections in combination to see specific trends and their timings in yearly analysis.

Profections help us to focus our attention on certain matters and they can be studied on a yearly, monthly or even daily basis. Meanwhile, solar return charts of the national horoscope reflect major events and trends. In this lecture, we will go over specific mundane events and their use. Apart from the historical examples, some prevailing conditions will also be studied.

6th Nov 2021 GMT 5pm-6:30pm

Solar and Lunar Eclipses – understanding their cycles for individuals and nations

Dr. Bernadette Brady

The class aims to teach you how to work astrologically with eclipses. The class covers topics such as: learning how eclipses unfold in great cycles, how to distinguish between different eclipses and how they will engage with a chart, be it a person or a country. The class will also consider the nature of lunar eclipses, independent of solar eclipses, and understands them in terms of their own Saros cycles.

13th Nov 2021 GMT 5pm-6:30pm

Introduction of Financial astrology

Christeen Skinner

Learn about the key planetary cycles long known to astro-economists and how to make long-term forecasts. This class comes complete with pdf book of key financial charts and suggestions for your personal research.

SESSIONS

27th Nov 2021 GMT 5pm-6:30pm
Perfect Timing Using The Moon Phases
Robyn Ray

Robyn will explain the Metonic Cycle which is an ancient system of Timing events using the Moon Phases. This system was used by many ancient cultures to create their Calendars and is a wonderful tool for following a story from beginning to end and on to the next new beginning.

Each Moon Phase is part of a bigger story that develops over a period of three years. Your Astrological knowledge will be enriched by following each of the complete Moon Phase Stories. How can we begin to understand how events will play out as we watch the Moon Phases develop? What are going to be the important periods in our lives and in the world around us?

If there is enough time, Robyn would be happy to guide the Participants to explore their own charts.

11th Dec 2021 GMT 5pm-6:30pm
Astromap in Mundane astrology
Rod Chang

If the movement of the planets by transit or progression tells astrologers when and how events unfold, the astromap technique can help astrologers to determinate where the important impact will be. In Mundane astrology, AstroCartoGraphy and Local Space map can help astrologers forecast for coming year or season: where important events will happen; where challenges come from; and which areas will be geopolitical hot spots. In this talk, Rod will show you how Astromap techniques help the mundane astrologer's forecasting.

MUNDANE ASTROLOGICAL PANELS

Once a month, after our Mundane astrology lecture, we will have a free one-hour mundane astrology discussion, to discuss current geopolitical, economic and important world events and apply what we learnt from mundane astrology. We will also invite guest speakers to bring us different aspects.
